We hear . . .

—that R. J. Scott is displaying his physical charms in a three-tone bathing suit at a popular summer resort.

—that George Morison is having a whale of a time giving swimming lessons to the kiddies at S.L.

—that young Alex. McLaren fell in off the wharf at Sylvan Lake, and his Dad, (who is an expert pole climber) had to take a jump in the lake—neither being any the worse for their experience.

—that the mosquitoes "Old Timer" speaks of at Shady Rest, have nothing on those at Buck Lake, which roost in trees like crows and hum like aeroplanes. They are well behaved however, keep a safe altitude, and are positively unknown to bother campers. Yeah!

(Boy. Page Mr. Wade.)

—that our genial p.m. who (waa-shoo!) is suffering with a touch of hay fever, says about his ailment, "One day the eyes have it, then it's the nose. W A A - S H O O !"

Mr. C. Bingham, Mr. J. C. Desso and Mr. W. S. Marshall are leaving early tomorrow morning for Cold Lake, where they will do some fishing. They will return to Oyen Saturday.

WEDDING

GARBUTT-McMURRAY

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Consort United church manse on July 27, when Opal Pearl, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McMurray, Oyen, became the bride of Mr. Archibald William Garbutt, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Garbutt, Sedalia. Rev. J. R. Brown officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe with white accessories to match.

After a light luncheon served by Mrs. Brown, the bride and groom left for Gooseberry Lake, where they spent a short honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Garbutt returned to Oyen with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrell and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Diek.
